Weekly Update For Our Members

Friday 4th November 2022

Dear Members,

Just a final reminder that the Annual Sailing and Club Review Meeting is on Saturday 5th November at 11:00.

We are also launching our very interesting Centenary book on Saturday and copies will be available to purchase at the Club or on-line.

We are now well into the Winter social season and tickets are on sale for our regular prizegiving dinners. Please check the Club website for all details.

With best wishes,

Phil Lawrence

Commodore

Centenary Art Exhibition

Judging by Simon Chadwick & Commodore's Choice

Our Centenary Art Exhibition is now open and will be on display for 4 weeks.

The Exhibition has now been judged by Visiting Artist Simon Chadwick and he chose Carolyn Howden's 'Squally weather over Dartmoor' as his favourite. Our Commodore has also selected his favourite which is by Josie Nieves called 'Boats at Stonehaven'. Both can be seen above.

Simon Chadwick has illustrated over 30 children's books plus books on dietary health and animal husbandry, as well as producing ongoing cartoons and illustrations for a host of High Street names, major attractions, and travel companies. He writes some of the books too, including the New Forest Friends series, the story part of the PRSIST books about children's cognitive development (Dr Steven Howard did the science bit), and The Rubbish Monster Thing. He is also writing two stories a week for the popular children's story podcast Short Stories For Kids. You can find out more about him at his website www.ceratooola.co.uk

Big Time Half Term...

For our Juniors out on the water

Youth and Junior sailing activities over half term were wide ranging and well supported. The mild weather and lively winds contributing to excitement and enjoyment. Here is a brief rundown, starting with the youngest and working upwards...
