As the 2022 cruising season comes to an end it's time to consider who wins the annual cruising awards, which will be presented at the Annual Cruising Dinner and Prizegiving, on Saturday 25 February 2023. Most of the awards are based on the logs which members submit, but two are based on nominations from club the Seamanship Trophy, for a feat of seamanship or navigation; and the John and Angie Bailie Trophy, awarded for a lifetime of achievement in sailing. Please consider who might be fitting candidates for these two awards, and make a nomination, with a brief citation to me at georget0104@gmail.com before midnight on 5 February 2022.

We have six awards available for skippers or crew who submit a log or other account of a recent cruise – the majority are available to either sailing or motorboats, but one is reserved to motorboats, and two for sailboats. Don't worry which prize you're aiming for: the judging panel will decide where you fit best. We are very keen to see logs from a cruise involving young families, or from juniors or under 18s as skippers or crew members; and we have one award which is especially suited to people who records their cruise live to Please send your account as a pdf not exceeding 25mb in size, before midnight on Sunday 5 February 2023, to
