Dinner and Ceilidh Celebration

Our annual celebration of Scotland's National Poet, Robert Burns, will be taking place in the Clubhouse on Saturday 22nd January 2022, starting at 19:00.

Celebrate the life of Scotland's National Poet, Robert Burns with a three-course Burns Night dinner supported by a piper and with all the traditional speeches and recitals. Following the dinner get set to whirl at a traditional Ceilidh: a fun-filled evening of jigs, reels and live entertainment!

The Burns Night menu looks delicious! Tickets cost £45 per person and should be booked in advance, along with any dietary requirements by Tuesday 18th January.

In order for the event to go ahead we need to sell 70 tickets. Should this target not be reached we will sadly have to cancel the evening and all tickets purchased will be refunded. Please book your tickets as soon as possible in order for us to monitor demand - at the latest by Tuesday 18th January.

We are committed to ensuring the safety and wellbeing of our members and staff. Please follow the Club guidelines relating to Covid-19: all attendees should take a Lateral Flow Test before attending the Club and not attend if testing positive or displaying any symptoms of Covid-19. Sanitise your hands on entering and on leaving the Club and follow government advice relating to the wearing of face coverings. All rooms will be well-ventilated with the CO2 monitored and recorded. Do remember to bring layers to keep warm as windows will be open.
